ıl.	The following observations were made at Schoenwalde airfield in early August and on 17 September 1954:
	Early August. The antennas were still dismantled from the radio rasts at the drill ground east of the garage at the field. The four wooden masts, each about 18 meters high, and the small green wooden hut were still available. 17 September. Some of the former air force quarters were again occupied by air force personnel. Lieutenant Colonel Chesnakov (fmu) of the rocket launcher unit stated that, on 17 September, 3 buildings were occupied by officers and EM. Air force soldiers were seen on the road leading from the buildings to the kitchen. Officers observed near the quartering buildings included an air force captain who had been seen with the Unit Panfilov in Doeberitz some time ago.  Shortly after 0900, 2 Po-2s were parked west of the hangar the doors of which were closed. No additional aircraft were seen at the field. There was no air activity. Antennas were again observed on the wooden masts	25X1
